Over 90 per cent of the cabin crew and an majority of the pilots have received and accepted the new compensation package, said Campbell Wilson, MD & CEO, Air India. This comes amid the tussle the airline is facing with its pilots.

In an internal communication on Friday, Wilson said: "I'm pleased to report that 90 per cent of cabin crew and a majority of the pilots have received and accepted the new compensation package offered last week, which will be backdated to April 1.

According to sources, Air India has over 3,000 pilots and close to 6,000 cabin crew on payroll. This number includes Jet Airways and India Express as well. Last year, Jet Airways reported that during a year half the new compensation structure, contract contours and upgrades were discussed. The airline has been facing employee unrest after this.

This Sunday took over the airline in January 2022 after years of the government trying to dislodge it due to mounting losses. The company has since decided to merge them into one airline.

KEY QUESTIONS
In his internal communication, Wilson also spoke about the fact that the long-term negotiations conducted a meeting with the cabin crew to discuss the Jet Airways rostering tools, which is expected to be operational in August. He said so far two interconsessions have been conducted. These interactive sessions are to help the crew familiarise with the new compensation and also share with Jet Airways issues being faced by the crew.

The key questions revolved around cabin fatigue and current rosterability, duty, duty and block times, time and golden off, among others. Our crew associations and the implementation team will continue to engage, stay tuned for the next round of sessions," he added.

On Thursday, Air India issued an announcement stating that it is bidding to hire over 1,000 pilots. The airline has placed a tender for 70 aircraft with Boeing and Airbus domestically and internationally.

"I educate [in privatisations], you are looking for bidder, for that you have to strengthen the bank by having a proper board and by a proper chief executive to lend credit in the shareholder.

If you lend credibility to the market, you don't need to sell the bank to anybody. They will approach us.

You can take less time to building a fund to pump capital in banks. That is all being executed. Today, what is really happening is that if you have a good management team that is professional, then it is simple to raise money from the public. We don't need to have a fund or anything.

These are the characteristics I think which we have to support. We should really divide the space into three: one is state-owned, the other is public-owned, which is the idea of HDFC Bank, and the third is the private sector, where the Asia Bank are the largest private sector banks, and the characteristic of these banks are that they are publicly owned and are, preferably, non-banked. Management teams will be more involved in the day-to-day business.

There's a situation about the need for privatisation by your board, and the government is to the process of privatising ICICI Bank. Are the right steps being taken? ICICI bank, HDFC bank and such as Sandeep Bajaj, NS Kanwar, Sandeep Bajaj, V Venkateswaran, Kajal Marpa and Shubha Srivastava, and all of them are so thrilled to be there to listen to their guru.

ASSET QUALITY

What Vaghul is equally pleased and amazed with is the asset quality of the Indian banking system. "See what has happened at ICICI Bank. It [net NPL ratio] is at 4.8 per cent. I can't believe that. We could never have dreamt of those numbers. That means it is great," he said, while explaining the reason for his optimism as also the feel of the banking sector.

At this juncture, he believes there is nothing as good as the asset quality in the system as such. "There is systematic stability, and there is nothing to worry about."

Google pays entire penalty of ₹1,337.76 cr imposed by CCI

KR Srivastava
New Delhi

In a significant move, Google has paid the entire penalty amount of ₹1,337.76 crore imposed by the Competition Commission of India (CCI) in October 2016 ruling last year in the Android case.

The entire penalty amount has been deposited in the Consolidated Fund of India within the thirty-day time period stipulated by the National Company Law Appellate Tribunal (NCLAT), and sources familiar with the development.

It can be recalled that NCLAT had, on March 29, upheld the penalty of ₹1,337.76 crore imposed by the CCI on Google for anti-competitive conduct in the Android ecosystem.

The NCLAT Bench comprising Ashok Shukla, Chairperson, and Alek Srivastava, Member (Technical), had in its 18th page order, given 15 days time for the tech giant to pay the fine and implement the order.

The NCLAT order also brought some partial victory to the tech giant with four of the 10 non-monetary conditions imposed by the CCI getting set aside by the appellate tribunal.

The four directions set aside related to allowing users to uninstall the pre-loaded apps, allowing side-loaded apps, sharing of APIs, and allowing of third-party app stores in Play Store.

The CCI directions to allow the unloading of Google apps was set aside. Further, the CCI directions to Google to give its API to third party was also set aside.
